

NATIONAL HUMANITIES ALLIANCE

ANNUAL MEETING and HUMANITIES ADVOCACY DAY

THE GEORGE
WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

March 8–9, 2010
Washington, DC

MARVIN
CENTER &
CAPITOL HILL

Meet national leaders and others who shape humanities policy, learn about the current state of federal funding and latest policy issues, and make sure your voice is heard in support of the humanities.

Watch for details in your inbox and on www.nhalliance.org.

Save the Dates

Save the Dates for the Annual Meeting and Humanities Advocacy Day

March 8–9, 2010 • Washington, DC

The 2010 program will include the annual business meeting for National Humanities Alliance members, discussions on the latest issues in humanities policy, luncheon and keynote address, legislation and policy briefing, Capitol Hill reception, and Congressional visits.

Participation will afford many opportunities to further develop advocacy skills, share information about your organization's or institution's work in the humanities with peers and policymakers, and better understand the current state of the humanities in light of the new Administration and economic downturn.

Register early at www.nhalliance.org. The fee to attend is $50. A block of rooms is reserved for participants at a discounted rate ($119/night on Sunday 3/7/10 and $219/night 3/8/10–3/10/10) at the One Washington Circle Hotel. Please call the hotel at (202) 872–1680 to make a reservation for the “National Humanities Alliance” group rate before February 7, 2010.

Mark your calendar now: March 8–9, 2010
Make sure your voice is heard in support of the humanities!

National Humanities Alliance

Founded in 1981, the National Humanities Alliance is a coalition of more than one hundred organizations and institutions dedicated to the advancement of humanities education, research, preservation, and public programs.